Tolerance

The fundamental British values are:

1. Democracy
2. The Rule of Law
3. Mutual Respect
4. Individual Liberty
5. Tolerance of those of different Faiths and Beliefs

Democracy

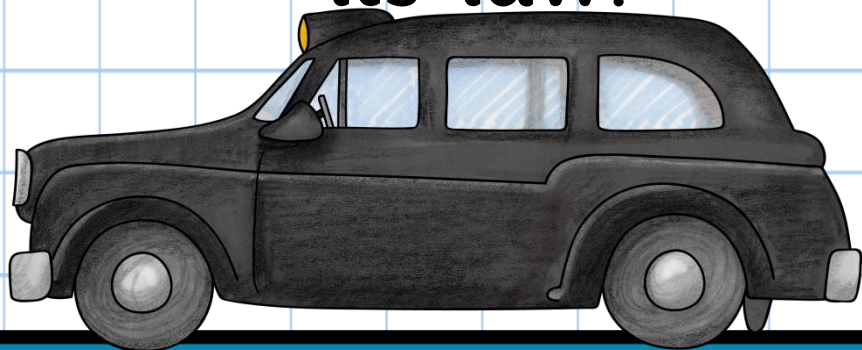

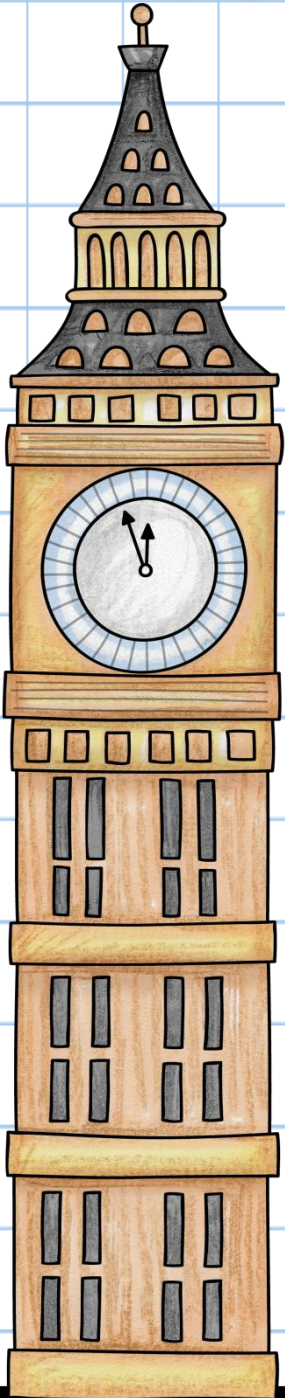

Democracy can be seen as a state of society characterised by equality of rights and privileges. It can also refer to our nation's electoral systems.

The Rule of Law

It is expected that while different people may hold different views about what is 'right' and 'wrong', all people living in England are subject to its law.

Mutual Respect

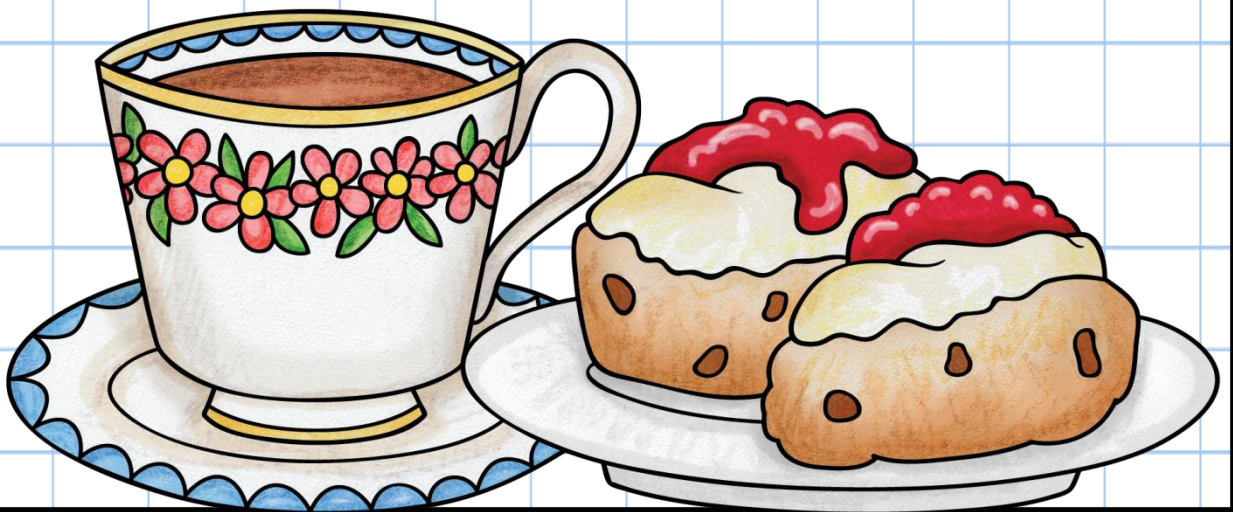

The proper regard for an individual's dignity, which is reciprocated.

Individual Liberty

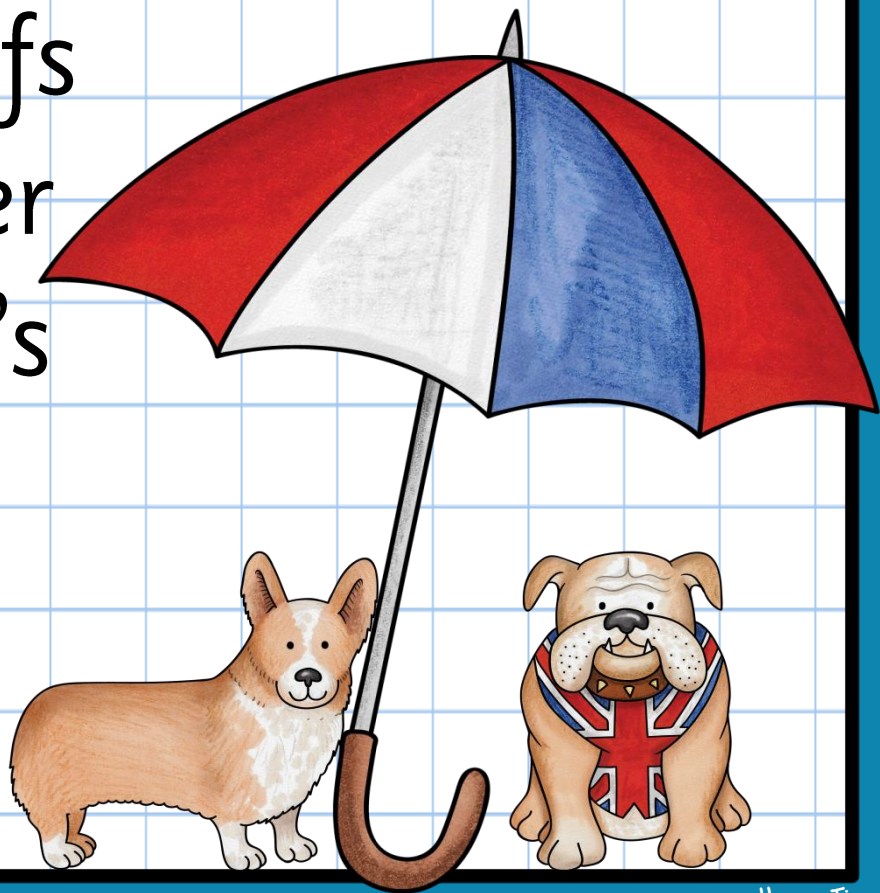

Individual liberty suggests the free exercise of rights generally seen as outside Government control.

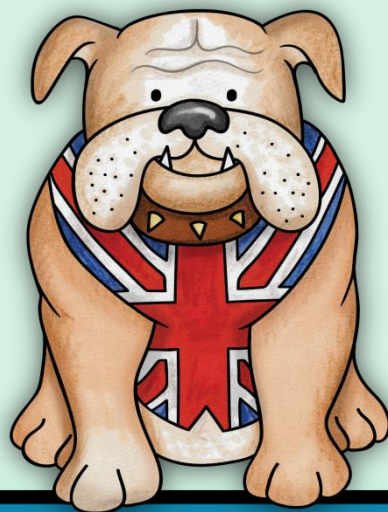

Tolerance

A fair, objective, and permissive attitude to those whose faith, religion and beliefs may differ from one's own.
